Wireline Attachment Process Overview

Application Review → Site Survey → Engineering & Design → Make-Ready Construction → Approval

Application Review
- Applicant Submits Application for Review in NJUNS
- Verify Pole Ownership & Candidacy
- Verify Application Contains All Necessary Information for Review, if Application is Incomplete Respond to Applicant with Notes
- Identify Obvious Issues & Conflicts

Site Survey
- Conduct Site Visit
- 15/45-Day Response Time (UTC) for Application Approval (Overlash/New Attach)
- Review Transmission Poles with Structural Analysis
- Provide MRW Notes to Partner for Approval

Engineering & Design
- 14-Day Response Time (UTC) for Final Make Ready Cost Estimate
- Design Finalized & Approved
- Right of Way (ROW), Traffic Control Plan (TCP) Jurisdictional Permits Submitted & approved
- Construction Date Sent to Partner

Make-Ready Construction
- Clearance and Pole Modifications Made to Create Sufficient Space and Capacity within 60 days of construction notification (UTC)

Approval
- Upon Completion of MRW, Approval and any Final Approval Caveats Will be Conveyed to Carrier in NJUNS
- Rental Fees Initiated Upon Approval

PSE PUGET SOUND ENERGY