

How do I qualify?

The Community Solar income-eligible option is available for PSE residential electric customers who receive their own monthly bill and whose monthly income is below 80% of area median income* or 200% of the federal poverty level** as outlined in the tables below. Qualification for income-eligible Community Solar is based on net income (income after taxes and authorized deductions).

*The below table shows income numbers for 80% of area median income (AMI) in the counties listed.
